Theme: "As For Me and My House, We Will Serve The Lord"

Rector: David Dodd

De Colores to our Cursillo Family,

"As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord." This is the theme for Cursillo #229. Our team has been called to serve and has made their choice by saying yes. I personally want to thank each and everyone for your prayers, palanca and friendship. The team of #229 is truly blessed.

Our theme song is "The Servant Song". Our scripture is Proverbs 3:3-6: "Let love and faithfulness never leave you. Bind them around your neck, write them on the tablet of your heart. Then you will win favor and a good name in the sight of God and man. Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight."

On Wednesday July 20th some 291 ballots that were cast for the three positions on the Quincy Cursillo Board were tabulated. And a vote of thanks is due to all who participated either by voting or by allowing their names to be submitted as a candidate. The candidates need to be given a special thank you for being willing to step up and serve as board members. Those currently on the board will attest that it does take some time and work to serve in a meaningful way.

When the final count was completed the following persons had been selected to serve for the next three years: Jane Deters, Renae Jansen and Vernon Korte. These new members will be annointed and take their seats at the August meeting. Bios will be forthcoming in the 4th Day in the near future.

Again our thanks to all who participated, and a special thanks to the three members leaving the board after the July meeting: Cindy Stephens, Ann Knuffman and Bob Rucker. Thanks for a job well done.

From the Lay Director's Notebook

I've been called to be on a team - where do I go? What do I do?

First, and foremost, begin praying – pray as if your life depended upon it for you will be under attack from here on until the weekend is over.

Then encourage your prayer buddies to do likewise, and make sure that one of them will be present to hang your cross on Thursday night of the weekend. It is extremely saddening to hear a team member's name called and see no one there to hang the cross. It indicates that the team member has little or no prayer support in the community.

Now start preparing yourself for the weekend, and it makes no difference what position you have been asked to fill on the weekend, they are all important.

Between the time you are called and the weekend make sure you are at the center for other weekends – spend some time in the Main Palanca Chapel so you at least know where it is. Know where the various rooms are – the Service Team Room, the conference room, the candidates lounge, the secondary palanca chapels, the kitchen, the north cafeteria, the north chapel, the various storage rooms – make yourself familiar with all of these. If you don't know where they are, ask a fellow team member, the board rep or the rector/rectora.

Seek spiritual guidance or counseling if you feel a need for it (I need it constantly) and don't do this on the weekend. Remember that time for spiritual guidance should be reserved for the candidates not the team. Leave your problems at home for the weekend.

I guess I'm just getting to be an old fuss-budget but I recall that when I began working in the Cursillo Movement in Arizona no one was allowed on a team in any capacity until they had attended a Leader's School. I thought that was a very hard stance and expecting a lot – but recently I have seen and heard things that are convincing me that it was justified. And I am reminded that we all get so much out of Cursillo and Jesus says in scripture, "When much has been given a man, much will be required of him. More will be asked of a man to whom more has been entrusted." Luke 12:48

How much have you been given?

Peace, love and joy, through with and in Christ.
Jim Nevins
