CURSILLO #183 – January 11-14, 2001

Theme: “The Invitation”

Song: “The Invitation”

Scripture Verse: Mathew 11:28-30

Dear Cursillo Family,

First of all, we, the team of #183, would like to extend a whole-hearted thank you and may the good Lord bless you for your Palanca & Prayers. They have been truly felt and have lifted us in our journey to serve the candidates. In Mathew 11:28-30, Jesus Invites us to come to Him. He will give us rest. Jesus Invites us to learn from Him for He is the true teacher. He will teach us to be humble and gentle. Oh, how the world can use some gentleness. We are Invited to share this gentleness in our world, our place of work and especially our homes. I'm honored to present the team of #183 who answered the Lord's Invitation to serve.

DeColores to the Cursillo Community,
Thank you all for being a part of the joy that filled the Franciscan Retreat Center during the weekend of November 9-12. The Lord blessed us with a wonderful, Spirit-filled weekend. Thanks to the Sponsors who allowed themselves to be led by the Lord to invite our candidates. Thanks to those who came on Thursday night to give us a warm send-off and attend Sponsor's Hour. Thanks to all of you ladies who served and made mealtimes such a friendly and eagerly anticipated occasion. Thanks to all of you who kept a prayer vigil in the Palanca Chapel during the weekend and all who wrote Palanca letters to us on the weekend. Thanks to all of the musicians who shared their wonderful talents with us. Thanks to all of you who celebrated Candlelight with us and the Closing Mass. Thanks to all who offered Palanca during the weekend and for the team during the time of their preparations. Your prayers and support were warmly felt and accepted. Thank you to all of the priests who joined us for the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Friday and Saturday nights. Thanks to everyone who worked for the success of the weekend in any way. You did a great job and your efforts were rewarded. May the Lord continue to lead us to a richer and more blessed relationship with Him and with each other.

“AND COUNTING”

We are blessed to have over 1500 households receiving the 4th Day Newsletter with approx. 250 being added to the list each year. This year, we have also been blessed with another option in how we can choose to get the newsletter, with the addition of the Cursillo website – www.quincycursillo.com. For those who have access to the Internet, there are some pluses – you get it faster, usually the week after each Cursillo, the photo is in color, and no matter where you move, you don’t have to send a change of address or miss out on a newsletter. There are currently 50 people who have chosen this option and removed their name from the mailing list. I want to thank all of you who have stepped forward so far and want to welcome all of you who would like to join this group. Check out the website and look under News & Information for the 4th Day newsletter. E-mail me at dmay@adams.net if this will work for you.

Thanks again,
Terri May

CHRISTMAS THOUGHTS

I worked for someone that I later found out made Cursillo. She was a sweet, 77-year-old lady that doesn't always make it out to the activities. She complimented me highly on the newsletter, but I told her that I wasn't the one who put it together. She said she really liked to read it. I got her new range hooked up and working Friday as the snow gently came down. I don't know why, but she really lifted me up. I just wanted to pass that on. (:)

I think sometimes we feel that we have to be dynamic, or specially gifted, or young and beautiful to make a positive change in another's life or that we have to have just the right words or struck by lightning or rich passing out money to help another human being. What a miracle, what a gift from God and how lucky we are...that all we have to do is be ourselves, show that smile that says I love you just the way you are, and encourage anyone we meet. Yes, I love the gentle snow coming down, knowing it probably won't be a mountain. This is my very favorite season. Let Christmas come early this year, friends.

Merry Christmas to All!!!
Steve Jansen
