Cursillo #218 – July 8 - 11, 2004

Theme: “Come rest with Jesus, Cast all your cares on Him”

Rectora: Giny Baker

Dear Cursillo Family,

I feel both honored and humbled to have been chosen to serve our Lord on Cursillo #218. Thank you for your prayers and palanca for us. I give Jesus all praise and glory for the team of beautiful ladies He has chosen for Cursillo #218. I'm excited and grateful for this opportunity to serve Him once again.

Our theme is: “Come rest with Jesus/Cast all your cares on Him”. Our scripture is: Mt. 11:28 “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened and I will give you rest.”

With all Praise and Thanksgiving to Our Lord Jesus Christ, I present to you the team of Cursillo #218. Spiritual Director: Fr. Walk to Emmaus Coming to Quincy

The Central Illinois Emmaus (CIE) is going to hold it's first Walk to Emmaus at the Quincy Retreat Center. CIE started in 1982 with "Walk #1" and typically holds weekends in Springfield.

A Walk to Emmaus is an inter-denominational program, sponsored by the United Methodist Church, and is adapted from Cursillo. Starting on Thursday evening and ending on Sunday evening, the weekend has many of the same "special" events that Cursillo has, including the Apostolic Hour on Saturday night. All Cursillistas are encouraged to attend the Apostolic Hour. More information will be provided in the next newsletter.

The men's weekend, #176, will be August 26-29 and the director is Jim Heaton. The women's weekend #177, will be September 23-26 and the director is Mary Jane Davis.

For more information about the Central Illinois Walk to Emmaus, refer to the website: www.ciemmaus.org. Applications are available on the website.

MESSAGE FROM YOUR LAY DIRECTOR

Dear Cursillo Family,

Have you taken time today to say thanks to Jesus for all He has done for you? If not, put this down and give Him all the honor and praise He deserves right here and right now. My note to you isn't nearly as important, as your own personal relationship with the Lord. We can't ever allow ourselves to get so busy with busyness that we forget to give time to our Jesus, who is the source of all that is good and right.

I want to thank you for your prayers. Your board and I continue to make those decisions to best serve the Cursillo family. We are proud to represent you and want you to keep us informed of your wishes and concerns.

It's time to remind you to continue to seek candidates for the upcoming fall/winter weekends. I would also like to remind you to read your responsibilities for being a sponsor. If you need a copy, they are at the retreat center and I will be happy to get one for you. We need to go beyond getting an individual on the weekend. A "follow up" is just as important. It's kind of like when God brings a new baby into the world. That child needs help once he's here. So to it is with a new Cursillista. It is the sponsor who must provide that help.

I hope you will notice there are more speakers on the North side of the chapel. That way, when your Lay Director gets up to speak on any given weekend, those folks on the North side can actually hear him!!! (I don't know if that's good or bad!) Another wonderful improvement are the new lights in the cafeteria. Now we can better see what we're eating! All of the palanca chapels have been repainted. Thanks to all those involved who continue to do so much to help improve our retreat center.

I have two favors to ask. First of all - please vote! Your vote counts and does make a difference. The deadline for voting is July 15th. Secondly, if any of you have access to copy paper - it would be great if you could donate a ream for all our copying needs at the center. You can bring it to the retreat center and leave it in the copy room. (last room on the left down the hall from the letter writing room) Thank you for your generosity.

Remember the upcoming Golf Outing scheduled for August 14th. Contact Tom Edwards (217-228-9882) for more details and to reserve your team spot. Again, we will have a Mass and carry-in dinner for everyone, whether you play golf or not. More details will be provided in the next newsletter. Try to save the date for a day of fun, worship, and good food.

I leave you with this thought....."God's help is near and always available, but it is only given to those who seek it."

God bless you on your journey.

DeColores and Wahoo!

Jay Grawe

Is Your Spirituality in Need of a "Tune-Up"?

Are you feeling the need to get your spirituality "tuned up" again? Then maybe you should consider attending the next Fourth Day Renewal weekend scheduled for September 17-18, 2004.

What is a Fourth Day Renewal? It is a 24-hour experience of personal growth for anyone who has previously made a Cursillo weekend. If you are feeling the need to renew and develop your spirituality and your commitment to living a Christian life, this is your opportunity. Maybe you are thinking about turning in your application to be on a team but aren't quite sure you are ready. Maybe this weekend will help you take that step.

The Renewal weekend starts on Friday evening at 7 p.m. and ends on Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m. It is held at the Quincy Retreat Center and the cost is $35.00. This is a co-ed weekend so you and your spouse can attend together.

An application will be in the August newsletter or you can download an application from the Cursillo website at: www.quincycursillo.com.

Start thinking about it now. Just like your car needs an oil change and tune-up every so often, is it time for your "tune-up"?

Discovering and Celebrating

Dear Friends,

Mary Jane's article last month reminded me of a dream I had last January that I wrote down in my journal (writers must dream a lot). I recorded it for a couple different reasons. One because I thought it was a pretty good one - made more sense than my usual fare of dream escapades, and because it was also humorous in a neat way.

In this dream David and I were teaching people to pray. We broke them up into groups and told them to imagine God before them to worship, beside them to talk to about their day, and behind them to protect and guide them. Then each group needed to pick one person to be God to listen while they practiced talking to him.

When I woke up I told David about it and wrote it down. Wow, a dream that actually made some good sense! Then I went down to walk on the treadmill. I picked up C.S. Lewis' book Mere Christianity to continue reading from where I left off. Well, maybe I thought, I should review a couple previous chapters so I would be in the right place mentally.

Okay, so what do I find? Page 176 has a description of the Trinity - God the Father in front of us, the Son beside us and Holy Spirit behind us, working through us. I was a bit disappointed that this was not the original idea I thought I had gotten via my dream! I had a big laugh on myself though and was happy that I did absorb what he had to say.

C.S. Lewis went on to say that we have to "take our place in the dance." To get wet we have to get into the water, to get warm we have to move close to the fire, to have joy, peace, eternal life we must get into the thing that has them. With God before us, his Son beside us, and the Holy Spirit behind us - we ARE in the midst of the Holy Trinity, a part of that beautiful spiritual dance that unites us with God and will carry us on into eternity with Him.

Guess we all have different ways of finding God in our lives and hearing his message of hope, peace and love. Maybe I should just put the book under my pillow at night.

Will let you know if I have any more "good dreams". Until then enjoy the dance!

Much love and hugs,

Terri May
